

Sports Anonymous

Youth Athlete Code of Conduct / Expectations

- Athletes are expected to arrive on time and be ready to begin at the start time.
- Proper attire is a must. NO sagging shorts or flat-bottomed tennis shoes (i.e. Air Force Ones or any other similar style of basketball or street shoes.) Running shoes or cross-trainers are acceptable choices. Please ask, if not sure of acceptable shoe styles. You will not be allowed to participate if not dressed appropriately.
- A t-shirt must be worn at all times.
- To avoid blisters, socks are strongly recommended
- Courtesy and respectful behavior is to be displayed to coaches and each other at all times. Coach Hibbler reserves the right to dismiss ANYONE who does not adhere to these rules or take these sessions seriously, WITHOUT refund.
- Athletes are limited to designated areas.

Suggested items to bring for each session: Your own water bottle

Towel

Change of shirt

Post-session snack (granola/cereal bar, fruit, etc.....NO candy)

*****

****I understand and agree to obey the expectations listed above.*

Athlete's signature _____

****For Adult clients and Parents/Guardians****

My/ my child's health issues have been addressed by a physician and I have/ he/she has been cleared for participation in such events. Medical equipment, such as an inhaler, is to be made readily available to the coach and/or athlete for usage upon an emergency. I understand that my medical insurance is primary and any coverage from Sports Anonymous, LLC is effective only after my insurance has paid.

---

Does participant use an inhaler? Yes _____ No _____ (If Yes, one must be available during each session)

Signature of client or parent/ guardian ( if client is under 18) _____

Date: _____

---

Come with a heart to work hard and a desire to succeed!!!